Many teams struggle getting along. High performance work teams have established an effective cadence, produce high quality work, and typically really like each other as people.
Do you have a high performance work team?

- Are you ready to take your innovative team to the next level?
- Do you have an intact culture able to catalyze another major success?
- Is your high performance work team experiencing a major transition?

If you answered “yes” to any of these, your team is ready for the

The Daring Way™ is a highly experiential methodology based on the research of Dr. Brené Brown. The method was developed to help men, women, and adolescents learn how to show up, be seen, and live braver lives. The primary focus is on developing shame resilience skills and developing a courage practice that transforms the way we live, love, parent, and lead. It can be facilitated in clinical, educational, and professional settings and is suitable for work with individuals, couples, families, work teams, and organizational leaders.
