

PATRICIA PORTER

Associate Certified Coach, Conflict Mgmt. & Leadership Development Expert

OVERVIEW

Patricia "Pattie" Porter is a certified coach, Certified Virtual Facilitator™, credentialed workplace mediator, and a seasoned leadership team development facilitator and professional speaker.

Since the mid-1990s, Pattie's study and practice as a conflict management and resolution consultant, mediator and team facilitator has helped to reduce the anxiety and organizational distress many leaders and teams experience as a result of destructive conflict engagement and ineffective change-transition management.

Today, Pattie provides executive as well as specialized conflict management and abrasive behavior coaching for individuals and teams wishing to change their caustic environments. Pattie is a warm and empathetic listener using insightful questioning to bring out the answers from within the leader. She has coached clients primarily with federal government agencies, universities, research institutions and municipal services in the U.S., as well as a private firm in the Mediterranean. She has 175 hours of specialized executive coach training, and over 750 hours of coaching experience.

Additionally, Pattie facilitates programs and events to support companies, universities, federal and state agencies reach their desired goals to change the status quo. Pattie is a certified Toastmaster and a member of the National Speaker Association. She has presented keynote and breakout sessions as a SME on conflict dynamics, abrasive behaviors, and constructive communication at conferences and professional meetings throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Pattie currently serves as a mentor to coaches, facilitators, and mediators for the Navy, Transportation Security Administration, and the Department of Interior. She is an adjunct faculty for the graduate program in Dispute Resolution at Southern Methodist University teaching conflict coaching and group facilitation since 2013.

WHAT CLIENTS SAY

"I wanted to follow-up with you and let people know of your outstanding coaching. It has been about 4 years since you successfully coached me on conflict in relationships and saved my relationships with two important people in my world. Enter Pattie Porter...Coach Extraordinaire!!! I still utilize the skills you taught me and I have been happier in all my relationships."

- Manager, Federal Agency

"Patricia Porter is very effective in constructive feedback, encouraging, and insightful. She offered real content to help me through the process when I got stuck, let me figure out what I needed to do without jumping in, helped me keep moving through the process given the time frame. She is receptive to my questions; very positive and encouraging and provided tools that were not always obvious to me as the learner."

- ADR Specialist, FEMA

"You did an outstanding job making us feel comfortable enough to take risks and open ourselves up to criticism and we felt ok about accepting ownership for improving. All of us are excited about working together to make our 'community' a great place to work."

- Department Director, University of Delaware

"Pattie was the perfect facilitator for our group. She kept the team on task but was flexible in expanding the areas that needed additional attention."

- Federal Security Director, Transportation Security Administration
